

Manner Manual for Foreign Residents

How to avoid trouble

Rules and manners for everyday life in Japan are different from those in other countries and regions.

Not knowing the proper rules and manners can get you in trouble with your neighbors, and even get you caught up in crime.

Take the time to learn about the rules and manners of Japan so you can enjoy a safe and sound life here.

Rules and Manners for Everyday Life

If you do not understand the rules, just ask the real estate agent or the landlord.

When you are renting an apartment:

- You cannot allow people whose names are not on the lease to live in your apartment, nor can you lease the apartment to other people without permission from the landlord.
- You must terminate your lease when you move out.

If you do not follow these rules, you may be evicted from your apartment.

- Speaking too loudly
- Speaking in corridors or on balconies
- Playing music too loudly

• These behaviors can cause complaints and trouble from other tenants.

• You may even receive a warning from the manager or the police.

Please be especially careful late at night and early in the morning.

There are also rules for parks and other places that are open to the public. Please follow the rules there too.

- You cannot enter or use empty lots or fields without permission.

• This will lead to trouble with the owner of the land.

• You may also be subject to punishment by law.

- Make sure to lock your homes and windows when you go out.
- Keep them locked when you are indoors as well.

Even if you are only going out for a moment (to take out the trash or check the mail), make sure to lock your doors and windows.

If you do not keep them locked, you may fall victim to crime.

Rules and Manners for Disposing Waste

Designated Garbage Bags

- There are rules for disposing of waste.
- 1. Buy the designated garbage bags at a convenience store or supermarket. You cannot use any other bags.
- 2. Bag your trash, and put it at the designated place by 8:30 AM on the specified collection day of the week.
- You cannot leave waste on roads or on empty lots.

• This will cause complaints and trouble from your neighbors.

• Leaving waste on the road makes towns dirty.

- You must apply in advance to have bulky waste collected (you cannot throw it out as it is).

You can find the rules for throwing out trash on the internet. There are even videos that explain rules for throwing out garbage.

Rules for Part-time Jobs (for international students)

- If you want to work a part-time job, make certain to check the hours, wages and responsibilities before you start working.
- International students may only work a maximum of 28 hours per week (or up to 8 hours per day during long vacations from school, such as summer break).
- Working in entertainment and amusement establishments is prohibited (examples include pubs, game centers and pachinko parlors).

• Breaking this rule may result in you getting deported from Japan.

• You may be punished even if you did not know you were working in such an establishment.

Rules and Manners for Bicycles

- Bicycles must be registered.
- When you receive a bicycle or give a bicycle to someone else, the registration must be changed. When you throw a bicycle away, it must be deregistered.

If you do not register your bicycle, you may be suspected of having a stolen bicycle.

You can complete this process at bicycle shops.

- Make sure to obey traffic signals.
- Ride on the left side of the road.
- Ride in single file. Do not ride side by side.
- Riding your bicycle under the influence of alcohol is prohibited by law.
- Listening to music or using your mobile phone while riding your bicycle is also prohibited.

• If you don't follow these rules and ride recklessly, you may injure pedestrians.

• Reckless riding can be subject to punishment by the law.

- Make sure to wear your helmet.
- Enroll in bicycle liability insurance.

If you want to enroll in bicycle liability insurance, you can do so at bicycle shops (TS Mark Insurance). It is valid for one year.

This will prepare you in case you get injured or injure someone else.

- You must not take unlocked bicycles, even if they are left on the road.
- Park your bicycle in bicycle parking lots.

• Riding someone else's bicycle without their permission is a crime.

• If you park your bicycle outside of a bicycle parking lot, it may be impounded.

Other

- You cannot borrow or lend your own nor other people's residence cards or national health insurance cards.
- You cannot transfer or sell your bank account to anyone else.
- Do not upload anything containing private personal information to social media.

• You may fall victim to crime.

• You may also be subject to punishment by law.

You will be punished even if you do not know the rules. Be careful.

When smoking:

- Only smoke in designated areas.
- Do not smoke while walking on the streets.
- Do not drop cigarette butts on the ground.

• Smoking in crowded places or when there is strong wind can cause injury to other people, so be careful.

- You cannot carry a knife or other dangerous objects around, even for self-defense.

• This is strictly prohibited by Japanese law.

• You may also be subject to punishment by law.

If you don't understand how to do the process or make payments, ask at your ward office.

- Make sure to pay your national health insurance and national pension premiums.
- Pay them by the deadline.

- If you do not pay your premiums, you may have to pay the full price for treatment at hospitals.

• Apply to pay by account transfer.

• You can apply to pay national health insurance premiums by account transfer at your local ward office. Bring your bank card and personal stamp with you.

Consult with us if you are in trouble.

Important points for consultation
